On your left....

is the design for the lineup sheets that SportGame provides weeks in advance of the weekly contest. Each of SportGame's many locations has a unique design to promote their contest.

You provide the artwork for the logo at the top along with the contest name and, at the bottom, your entry deadline. For the professional football contests, Sportgame recommends a deadline no later than 45 minutes before the first kickoff.

See how easy it is. You create the top and bottom and SportGame does the rest.

Huge marketing idea...

The lineup sheets come to you as a pdf file. The "3 across" sheets fit on a standard 8.5" x 11" page. All the information is on the front. Use the back to partner with a distributor in your area who will print their logo or message on the back.

For example, one casino has their stock car racing lineup sheets in every NAPA Auto Parts store in their area. Customers pick up the lineup sheets all over town but still have to come to the casino to enter the contest. Cost: A couple of free buffets for the store to send another hundred guests to the casino every week.
